New Orleans, La.—"I cannot praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound enough, for I know my daughter never would have been so well if she had not taken it. For more than a year she had suffered agonies from irregularity, backache, dizziness, and no appetite, but is now well. I recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to all mothers and daughters who can publish this letter."—Mrs. A. Estrada, 129 N. Galvez Street, New Orleans, La.

Philadelphia, Pa.—"My daughter was feeling tired and all run down with no apparent cause. She had taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before and knew its value so she again purchased it and she was able to keep to work, her eyes became bright and natural, and her system was built up completely. We generally keep the Vegetable Compound in the house for it is to be relied on."—Mrs. E. J. Purdy, 1131 Race Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

HOOKEER PLEASED AT SIZE OF VOTE

John Kissel, Chairman of Enrolled Republican Voters' League, Predicts Defeat of Travis.

James F. Hooker of Schenectady, N. Y., formerly of Brattleboro, who was defeated in the campaign for the nomination for state controller by Eugene M. Travis of Kings by about 105,000, polling 44,801 votes, is pleased with the size of his vote, considering that he had no money with which to make a campaign and that he was opposed by the organization.

John Kissel is not at all disturbed over the hubbub raised by the postal card which he sent out on Monday, says the Brooklyn Daily of Sept. 20, urging voters to support James F. Hooker against Controller Travis, and to which card he attached the names of National Chairman Willcox, State Chairman Tanner and County Chairman Voss. Travis has sent the cards, together with a mass of statements and affidavits, to District Attorney Lewis, and also says he will lay the matter before the federal authorities, with a request to ascertain whether the postal laws have been violated.

"Oh, yes," said Kissel today, "I sent out the cards, and they cost $10, plus the printer's fee."

"Were you authorized to use the names of those leaders?"

"No. It is true that the names of Willcox, Tanner and Voss were on the cards, but they were simply there to inform the voters of where the committees are located. If you will examine the cards closely, you will find that the addresses of the committees are all carefully given, as well as the names of the chairmen. I think it important that Republican voters should know where the committee headquarters are established."

"When did you mean when you stated that 'we' urge you to vote for James F. Hooker?"

"The pronoun 'we' referred to the Enrolled Republican Voters' League, John Kissel, chairman. Through an error that was left off the card, I don't know how this slip occurred. The whole thing was done in a hurry."

"Did the Hooker people have anything to do with the issuance of the postal card?"

"No, I did it. I am standing pat. If anybody wants me to explain anything about the card, I am ready to

Holyoke Citizens Coming Out Squarely with Statements Favoring Efficient Protection Against Bodily Ailments

"IT IS WONDERFUL"

Says Mrs. Richard Lye After Being Relieved of Stomach Trouble by Taking Tanlac

National preparation against a real or an imaginary threatened invasion is agitating the minds of millions throughout the country. The thoughts of millions of others are seriously turned towards preparedness against sickness, disease, and the wonderful stories of the benefits being derived daily through the use of Tanlac, The National Tonic.

Geo. F. O'Connor's Drug Store, at 443 High street, Holyoke, Mass., is the scene of many frank, voluntary statements from residents of Holyoke and vicinity—friends and neighbors of yours—who have benefited through taking this Master Medicine.

"It is wonderful," states Mrs. Richard Lye of 7 Cottage Ave., Holyoke, when buying her fourth bottle of Tanlac. "I have suffered from stomach trouble and indigestion, and was distressed after eating. I have been troubled this way for years."

"I saw Tanlac advertised, and believing that so many would not have recommended it publicly if it had not helped them, I started taking it. Tanlac has relieved me after taking three bottles. I now feel fine and can eat almost everything without being distressed."

Tanlac is purely a vegetable preparation, made from roots, barks, herbs and flowers, gathered from all parts of the world. What it had done for thousands of people who have testified publicly to its merits it should for others. There is no better test of its properties than a fair trial.

Tanlac is now sold in Brattleboro at the Brooks House Pharmacy and can also be obtained in all neighboring cities and towns at the Tanlac Stores.—Adv.

explain. Six of these cards were sent into Travis's district, the eleventh. I sent them to his friends there, because I knew they would run to Travis's house and tell him about them. Travis will be defeated in November."

BAPTISTS MEET IN CHESTER TONIGHT

Reports at Annual State Convention Will Show Largest Additions in Any Year Since 1876.

The Vermont Baptist state convention, composed of 115 churches, divided into seven associations, will meet in Chester beginning tonight and continuing through Wednesday night, and the report of the secretary and superintendent, Rev. Dr. W. A. Davison, will show that during the year there have been received into the church by baptism 582 members, which is the largest number reported in one year since 1876, also so that there are at the present time 9,652 members upon the union books, which is the largest number reported since 1880.

The churches raised for home expenses $119,268 and gave for benevolence $18,820, which is a fine showing. The income from the permanent funds and the contributions from individuals and churches has enabled the Baptists to spend $21,933 in the state of Vermont the past year. This money has been used to aid feeble churches, mostly in the rural communities, many of them where no other church exists, also to employ colporteurs, Sunday school workers and evangelists and missionaries among the Swedes and Italians. Treasurer Howard Crane of Burlington closed his books last week with all bills paid and a small balance in the treasury, and it is expected that the convention at Chester will be both large and enthusiastic.

This evening's program will be as follows: Devotional service, led by Rev. W. G. Toward of Bennington; address of welcome, by Rev. Ralph M. Jones, pastor of the Chester church; response and address by the president, Henry Bond; report of Young People's work by the state president, Rev. George E. Tomlinson of Brattleboro; address by Rev. Dr. C. A. Barbour, president of Rochester Theological seminary and Northern Baptist convention; closing prayer and benediction by Rev. F. M. Derwaeter of North Bennington.

GREENFIELD MAN

BURNED IN HOME

Spencer A. Jones, 61 Years Old, Is Believed to Have Been Smoking in Bed.

GREENFIELD, Mass., Sept. 25.—Spencer Am Jones, 61 years old, a well-known carpenter of this place, was burned to death yesterday morning in a fire that destroyed his home at Cedar and Cypress streets. The building was a small one story and a half cottage and was nearly destroyed when the fire alarm was sounded at 5:15 o'clock.

The firemen were delayed in reaching the scene because the box alarm registered 12 at the engine house instead of 125, and two trips were made before the location of the fire became known.

Mr. Jones occupied the attic room and was alone in the house, and when the blaze was extinguished it was discovered that his charred body had dropped into the ruins with the second floor timbers. The cause of the fire is not known, but a brother to Mr. Jones thinks he was smoking a pipe and the bedclothes took fire while he was asleep, as he was in the habit of getting up in the night to smoke. The loss of the building is estimated at $500.

Mr. Jones leaves his second wife, son and daughters, four daughters by his first wife, and a brother. He was a native of West Deerfield.

A BRATTLEBORO INTERVIEW.

Mr. Pratt Tells His Experience.

The following brief account of an interview with a Brattleboro man over two years ago, and its sequel, will be read with keen interest by every citizen.

B. F. Pratt, 7 Spruce St., Brattleboro, says: "I was troubled for a long time by disordered kidneys caused by a strain. I had backache and pains across my loins and was often so lame that I could hardly straighten. I did not rest well on account of too frequent passages of the kidney secretions. I doctored and tried several medicines, but nothing helped me until I got Doan's Kidney Pills at the Brattleboro Drug Co. They strengthened my kidneys and removed the backache and lameness."

AFTER A LAPSE OF OVER TWO YEARS, Mr. Pratt said: "I gladly confirm my former endorsement. I know Doan's Kidney Pills are the best kidney medicine to be had."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Pratt has twice publicly recommended. Foster-Milburn Co., Prop., Buffalo, N. Y.
